Committee Reports

Public Relations – Mary Jane said that the information for the newsletter should get to her by August 28th for distribution in the first week of September. She also reported on various projects she would be doing this month. Tonya and Rhonda are working on posting animal on Craig's List. Mary Jane suggested that Tonya contact her about the TV visits so she can link it to our website.

Euthanasia – Tonya reported on the euthanasia cases for this past month.

Special Events – Paul went over Mary Schmidt’s report on Pedal For Paws. Mary Jane read an email from Peggy Miller regarding the Spay-Neuter Project she is heading up. Heidi suggested that the Medical Advisory Committee be a part of this project since there is no longer a SNAP committee.

Volunteers – An orientation process is being created for new volunteers.

Outdoor Adoptions – Jarrett reported that there is one outdoor adoption pending. Mary Jane will be putting the outdoor adoption cut off date of Oct 1st in the newsletter. Heidi reported on the distribution of the outdoor adoption posters.

The meeting went into open session for public comments.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:50 by Paul Barrett. The next meeting will be at the Monroe Public Library on September 9th.

These minutes were written and submitted by Heidi Treuthardt, Secretary.
